4) PUBLIC COMMENT

- D. Fields commented on an Ordinance Review Meeting he had attended discussing the eligibility for special designations (signs, buildings, etc.); a Trustee’s absence at a Special meeting and people not being honorable.
- F. Anderson commented on her desire that Trustees learned from IML how to have timely meetings, the legislative Attorney absences
- C. Ellis reported on a citation received for parking across the driveway and that others were not ticketed
- L. Sapp commented on how the Board re-visited items not passed and revisited them at the following meeting
- G. Green made an appeal for assistance to garner support for the basketball team. He thanked the Mayor of the August 25th event and expressed being upset by the lack of Trustees in attendance
- D. Smith asked about disciplinary actions for late and absent Trustees who do not provide cause
- B. Barrett asked about loitering on his property
- E. Davis asked about the considerations being taken for the absence of a grocery store

Mayor Burgess’ Responses
- Spoke of the illegal Special Meetings that had been called and that if most received notification of a meeting, all did.
- Informed that motions can be recalled and revoted according to Code
- The children of the Village are of great importance
- There may be something to reference Trustees’ consecutive absences, they can be asked to vacate the seat
- The police should be called for loitering
- The grocery store was voted down. The broker who was to conduct the survey is no longer willing to work with the Village. The funds to pay for the study would have come from TIF funds, not taxpayers
